LEGISLATURE FROM JEFFERSON COUNTY.

JOHN H. HARNEY.

The uneasy men, who will not call themselves Secessionists, were greatly alarmed at the news lately brought by telegraph, but they have, perhaps, by this time, taken a cooler view of the case. This is not a page in the history of the contest, uttered nothing; it postpones only the success of the Union army. They have a week or ten days by one of the accite of war. The Union men are far more sanguine. They see no glory in the career of misguided men, nor decide readily in single encounters, which is only a victory, not even a victory. Another day or two may turn the tide, and dash all the efforts built on such light material to the bottom. Better keep cool, and not until you are out of the woods.

The Secessionists down in the Jack Purchase have established a reign of terror. All accounts from them confirm the truth of this statement. They are proscriptive, violent and vindictive. A Union man constantly in danger; not that many sympathize with this movement would wage in this lawless course; but some, and they are unrestrained. These men say the Purchase will succeed, if, of course, they will be opposed to it. The "facts" are that the campaign of 1865 cost Mr. Douglas, pecuniarily, but very little. He had no money to expend, even if he desired to do so. A gentleman of Chicago, who knew Mr. Douglas' circumstances, about the first of August raised a purse of $1,000, to be used to defray Mr. Douglas' personal expenses during the campaign, and he was requested to draw upon it as he needed it. Later in the fall he used $400 to pay some small bills contracted during his travel, and that $400 was all the money that he expended during the campaign. The balance of the 1,000 was employed for other purposes—to pay the personal expenses of other persons in various parts of the State. The Democratic State Central Committee had no money during that campaign, and we suppose $500 would cover all the contributions they received.

ORDER CONCERNING FUGITIVE SLAVES.—The following important order has just been issued:

THE EXPENSES OF MR. DOUGLAS' CAMPAIGN OF 1858.—It having been often stated that Mr. Douglas was made a bankrupt by his great expense in the campaign of 1858, which resulted in his election to the United States Senate over Mr. Lincoln, the Chicago Post thus replies:

"The facts are that the campaign of 1858 cost Mr. Douglas, pecuniarily, but very little. He had no money to expend, even if he desired to do so. A gentleman of Chicago, who knew Mr. Douglas' circumstances, about the first of August raised a purse of $1,000, to be used to defray Mr. Douglas' personal expenses during the campaign, and he was requested to draw upon it as he needed it. LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY: WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 24, 1861.

NUMBER 7.

We give the following extract from a letter from Logan county. It is of the same tenor with several from near the Tennessee line:

The Union men here are up and doing to redeem old Logan from treason in the August election. Led on by the high-toned and patriotic Bailey, in spite of the Russellville oligarchy, they expect to succeed. The enemy are bold, vaunting and rampant. For a few days after the May election they were few miles from the Memphis and Louisville railroad, and they obtained a chuckling promise from many of the officers that they would soon be back, they have not only taken fresh courage, but have become more defiant than ever. The predictions now are that the day of reckoning is near at hand in this country, by which they try to menace Union men and deter the timid and wavering from opposing their opinions and voting their sentiments. I live near the Tennessee line and close to the railroad, and from the movements of the Secessionists, the tone of expression, the deep interest taken by them in the transportation of troops to Tennessee, their hints and over-spoken threats that those troops will soon be back, forces the conviction on my mind that there is a plot to subvert the State.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this meeting that it is the duty of the Union men to take the election of Senator into their own hands, and give their seceding friends as little trouble as possible.

Resolved, That, in our opinion, the duty of this Senatorial District to meet in convention, in Liberty, Casey county, Ky., on Saturday, the 27th day of July, for the purpose, if possible, of selecting the ablest, truest and most efficient Union man that the district affords as a candidate for the State Senate.

Resolved, That the object in fixing on Liberty is to avoid, as far as possible, the appearance of partiality, as Garrard and Lincoln counties have each aspirants, and Casey has none.

Resolved, That, while we have high regard for the worthy gentlemen who are aspirants for the position, the nomination of long-standing and tried and trusty men, especially the Hon. Samuel Lusk, we cannot refrain from expressing our opinion in his behalf, and we hereby direct our delegates to cast their 12 votes for him in said convention.

Resolved, That, while we thus freely express our preference, we are ready and willing to consult and co-operate with the Union men and delegates from Lincoln and Garrard counties, and to aid in the election of any good and true Union man, and to support him should he receive the nomination of said convention.

Resolved, That Messrs. Hiram Thomas, G. B. Gibbons, E. Coffey, Alfred Goode, James R. Dunn, Joel Sweeney, John Humphrey, Ambrose Ward, Job Sweeney, John Humphrey, Andrew Riggsby, Wm. C. Cundiff, and E. J. Dods, be appointed delegates for Casey county in the convention.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in the Louisville Democrat and Journal and the Frankfort Commonwealth.

JOHN SWENY, Secretary.

C. P. TATE, Chairman.

A correspondent at Syracuse, writing on the 20th, gives us some items of interest. He says he found a strong Union sentiment in the city, and a determination by the friends of peace and good government to assist in suppressing the secession produced by the acts of Governor Jackson. Information from the bellicose Jackson is to the effect that Montgomery, in command of 600 Home Guards, was near Georgetown, on the east of Magoffin's camp; and Colonel Grover, of Johnson, with 1,200 Home Guards, from Johnson and Lafayette counties, was to the west of him. Magoffin was north of Georgetown, in the bend of Black Water, with some 1,000 or 1,200 Secessionists. There had been no fighting. Captain Montgomery expected to be reinforced from Bonniville by a company of artillery, dispatched by Colonel Stevenson. A still later account represents that Magoffin had disbanded his force, and the men had dispersed to their homes, where, it is hoped, they will remain, good quiet citizens. Montgomery had made a quiet visit to the city, and was received with open arms by the citizens. At Pensacola, for instance, a public meeting was recently held and a committee of safety appointed to look after all the inhabitants of the city. The observer published the names of five hundred and twenty-four citizens who have taken the following oath:

"I do most sincerely and solemnly swear before Almighty God, without mental reservation of any kind, that I will support and defend the Constitution of the Confederate States of America, and in all its rights and dignities, as a firm and faithful ally of the said Confederate States; and I do promise that I will endeavor to disown, and will report any and every unfaithful person of whom I may obtain reliable intelligence. So help me God."

It will be seen that the Union men of Henry county have expressed a preference for the Hon. Samuel Lusk for Senator, in the district composed of Casey, Garrard and Isa. The other two counties have not yet. We understand there is another man, who is an aspirant for the office. Union men of the district must manage their own affairs in their own way. They will, doubtless, nominate and elect a first-rate man.

Editors can see now exactly who was blame for the disaster to the Federal cause, and how it might have been avoided.

It is not the exact wording before us; but the substance:

The examination of Henry Green, watchman, for killing John W. Tompkins, was postponed in the police court until the morning of the 24th inst.

ATTENTION, HAMILTON GUARDS!—The members of the company are requested to meet at their armory this morning at half past seven o'clock, to attend the funeral of Patrick Kelcher, a late member of the Tompkins Zouaves. By order of the Captain.

UNION MEETING IN THE FIFTH WARD.—The Union voters of the Fifth ward are requested to meet at the Washington Engine-house this (Wednesday) evening, the 24th inst., at 8 o'clock, to nominate a candidate for the Board of Aldermen, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of W. F. Pettit.

RESIGNATION OF THE STATE GUARD.—We stated in our Sunday's issue that General Buckner and Colonel Hunt, of the State Guard, had resigned. The Yeoman says, in addition to the above, that Capt. Liney and Lieuts. Burnley and Brown, of the Governor's Guard of that city, have also resigned. General Buckner's resignation was to take effect yesterday.

THE SUMTER GRAYS.—This company chartered a steamboat and proceeded up the river some eight miles on a picnic excursion.

As they proceeded through the street some persons, observing the "marker flag" in possession of the company, mistook it for the Confederate flag. This was a decided mistake. The company is composed of Union men, and is one of the Home Guard of our city.

General of Patrick H. Kelcher.

The Tompkins, of which Patrick H. Kelcher was a member, and who lost his life by an accident, on the evening of the 22d of July, invite the companies of the Home Guard to attend his funeral from their armory, on the corner of Main and Ninth streets, on the morning of the 24th, at 9 o'clock. DEAD.—John F. Morgan, a well known printer of Memphis, died of consumption on Saturday morning.

NEW MILITARY COMPANY.—Last night a new military company organized in the Second ward named "Dent Guards," in honor of our excellent Chief of Police. The members are all sober, steady men, and will prove to be an excellent company. The following officers were elected: Captain—Jesse Ruebe; First Lieutenant—Jas. White; Second Lieutenant—W. H. Hagan; Third Lieutenant—S. S. Leatherman; First Sergeant—B. Dearing; Second Sergeant—Charles Winkler; Third Sergeant—M. O'Connor; Fourth Sergeant—Wm. Hannan; Fifth Sergeant—H. W. Stager. A few more good Union names are wanted to fill up the ranks.

SWIMMING SCHOOL AT THE CATHOLIC INSTITUTE.—The Cincinnati Commercial gives us a sensation item not at all connected with the war. It seems that in Cincinnati there is a Catholic Institute, which possesses a tank in which there is now how many gallons of water, all in proper trim for swimming. In this tank there is a sort of amphibious man, whose duties are well defined.

We envy our friends of Cincinnati this sort of swimming schools, and if our lady friends will only indulge us, we will get up one of our own accord, on which occasion only, we will play the amphibious man.

DISTRESSING OCCURRENCE.—A MAN ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.—On Saturday last, Mr. Joseph Martin, an old resident of Kenton county, was engaged in sky-larking with his nephew, Mr. Albert Martin, near the residence of the former on Taylor's Mill-pike, about six miles from Covington. They were playing with a cord wood stick, which the nephew tossed to his uncle, and the latter endeavored to catch, when it slipped from his fingers, and the sharp point struck him near the temple, inflicting a wound, which, though seeming to be but a small bruise externally, probably broke some blood vessel, producing hemorrhage of the brain, of which he died a few hours afterward.

DEATH OF A VENERABLE LADY.—We learn from the Cincinnati papers that Mrs. James Caldwell, mother of John D. Caldwell, Esq., of Cincinnati, died on Monday, in Zanesville, Ohio, at the advanced age of seventy-two. Mrs. C. was a native of Hartford county, Maryland. She was taken prisoner soon after the bombardment of Baltimore, accompanying some wedding tourists, when the ship of the British Admiral took the entire party prisoners of war. They were held for several days, until the gentlemen of the party were released on a parole under a flag of truce.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A man by the name of James Newman was found dead in the porch of the residence of John Clark, Esq., in Mount Eden, Ky., on the morning of the 15th inst. There was no evidence that the deceased had been foully dealt with in any manner. The evening before his death Newman said he had a mother living in Covington.

CHARLES WILLIAMS, the man who shot Henry Meister a few weeks ago, in New Albany, was arraigned before Justice Jocelyn yesterday morning, and waived an examination. He was remanded to jail in default of $5,000 bail for his appearance at the fall term of the Circuit Court. Meister is out of danger.

THE tobacco manufactory of R. E. Breed, on Columbia street, between Race and Elm, Cincinnati, was partially consumed by fire, Monday night about nine o'clock, causing a damage to the stock of about $2,000, and to the building of $8,000, all of which was covered by insurance. The building was owned by a Mr. Wright, of New York.

Mr. Edwin A. Stevens is now having an iron steamer fitted out at Philadelphia, which intends to offer as a present to the Government. She will be armed and equipped at his expense, ready for instant service, and will be designed for coast and harbor service. This patriotic offering will cost him at least $60,000.

THE production of rifled muskets at the Springfield Armory has been increased to 8,000 per month, which is more than were produced at the same time at Harper's Ferry and Springfield together, and in less than three months the manufacturer will be carried up to 6,000 per month.

HONORS to GEN. SCOTT.—At the annual commencement of Harvard College on Wednesday the degree of LL. D. was conferred upon Gen. Winfield Scott.

A SPY.—A man named G. N. Barbour, formerly a steamboatman, has been arrested in Memphis, and lodged in jail on suspicion of being a spy.

THE Memphis Bulletin, of the 22d, says Gov. Jackson, of Missouri, arrived in that city on Monday en route to Richmond, Virginia.

A KENTUCKY SOLDIER SHOT.—The Richmond Whig, of the 17th, says:

Yesterday afternoon about half-past two o'clock W. D. Wilson, a volunteer from Louisville, Kentucky, was shot by a comrade named George W. Bowman. Both of them were members of the Davis Rangers, Captain Fitchburg, from Louisville. Yesterday morning a guard was detailed to come to the city to arrest absentees and take them back to the camp. In passing up Main street the guard, among whom was Bowman, observed Wilson in front of Dickinson's hat store, and on approaching him, drew a knife and defied the guard, whereupon Bowman drew his pistol and fired, the ball entering the right breast and killing a mortal wound.

PROBABLE MURDER.—Two brothers-in-law, named James Role and James Geiss, the latter of whom lived on the west side of the river, opposite the island, and between whom an old grudge existed, had a collision about nine o'clock on Saturday night, in which Role cut Geiss in the bowels with a knife, wounding him, it is supposed fatally. About one o'clock the next morning, when Sheriff Conner and Off. Purdy, were in search of his brother-in-law, near where the E. & C. R. R. crosses the canal, he was brought to the city and was committed by Justice Peppers to jail to await examination this morning. Both parties are said to have been under the influence of whisky.—Terre Haute Express.

THE ADVANTAGE of SILENTNESS.—A young author (we will not mention name) has the lining of his hat completely blackened with ink. The wonder was how the spool could have got there, because authors do not generally carry their inkstands in their hats, when a wag present, who stammered (and if he hadn't stammered he could not have made the joke), suggested that "probably it might be the result of the th'-ink."

NO EMBARCO!—The NASHVILLE CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE AND NEWS, of Nashville, Tenn., has a weekly paper, "The Embargo," to be sent to the subscribers throughout Kentucky, and another portion of the United States. Subscribers in the city may, if they prefer it, call their paper at the office of J. H. MONTGOMERY, Merchant Tailor, 200 Jefferson street, between Third and Fourth.
